

ITVfest / PopConLA - FILMMAKER INTERVIEWS

A Q&A with Dick Fisher from the Comedy “Stardust and the Bandit”

~~~~~ * ~~~~~

So, Dick, your background, where are you from and what motivated you to do a Comedy?:

I was born in Brooklyn, NY (at a very young age....) and in my family making people laugh was critical for survival. I worked in TV and film for many years but always enjoyed being funny.

~~~~~ * ~~~~~

And your role with in “Stardust and the Bandit” ?

I wrote and directed the show (with Sarah Sher) and I also was the Director of Photography. Since I worked most of my career as a cinematographer it's hard to get me out from behind the camera.

~~~~~ * ~~~~~

How would you best describe your Comedy?

Clever, droll, ironic, odd ball, sometimes physical.

~~~~~ * ~~~~~

What was the best moment, for you in creating “Stardust and the Bandit”?

Being on set working with the cast and crew. When we finished the last take of the last setup and I called the wrap, someone yelled out, "no let's keep working!" It was great fun for everyone and we didn't want to stop working.

~~~~~ * ~~~~~

And the worst moment?

Calling the wrap. That's why we want someone to pick it up!

If you had one message to get across to the WORLD with “Stardust and the Bandit” – What would that message be?

This is a shovel ready show. All we need is the right producer to find a home for it.

Everyone that enters a Festival wants to win an Award,
What about your project makes it stand out?

I had this question many times after I won SUNDANCE with THE BROTHERS McMULLEN (which I produced, shot and edited) and I always say that the best production value is a story well told.

~~~~~ * ~~~~~

and What is next for you?

I am available.
